4.	Ms. Divya Agarahari,	6394771034	agraharidivya94@gmail.com	Member Psychological Counselling Cell

Sagar Institute of Technology & Management has initiated the "Psychological Counselling Cell". Children and adolescents are more vulnerable and may experience a heightened level of stress, anxiety and fearfulness, along with a range of other emotional and behavioural issues. It is a student support service intended to help students adapt and make the best of their learning environment and provides a platform for all to seek psychosocial support from experts in the field of mental health, counsellors, psychologists and educationists.

The role of the counselling cell is to bring about positive behavioural changes in the students and improve their ability to make their own decisions, understand their true potential and cope effectively with everyday problems they face. The Psychological Counselling Committee comprise of teaching faculty of the college. The committee identifies students who require services on priority along with their areas of deficiency and suggests the improvement required. The students once identified, are given academic as well as personal counselling. The counsellors of the cell are trained to assess, diagnose and treat students dealing with their day to day problems that can be personal, emotional, social, family, peer, academic, sexual, etc. We have a team of competent and qualified counselors who will cater to your specific needs. This facility is completely free and dedicated to the mental wellbeing of the students.
